Organizer: Research Laboratory for Nuclear Reactors, Tokyo Institute of Technology
<http://www.nr.titech.ac.jp/WelcomeE.html>
Center for Research into Innovative Nuclear Energy Systems (CRINES), Tokyo Tech
<http://www.crines.titech.ac.jp/eng/index.html>

Program:

9:50 Opening Address, Yukitaka Kato, Tokyo Tech

10:00 - 11:00 (Temporal) Potential contribution of high temperature nuclear reactors for low-carbon steelmaking, Dr. Alexandre Bredimas (Strane Innovation, France)

11:00 - 12:00 (Temporal) Solid state electrochemical conversion of CO₂ and steam to fuels, Prof. John T S Irvine (School of Chemistry, University of St Andrews, UK)

Fee: Free

For Participation: Send e-mail with your name, affiliation, position (or academic year), e-mail address, and the mail subject title of "Low-Carbon Lecture on 5 Oct" to Ms. Madoka Oizumi, madoka@nr.titech.ac.jp, by 2nd October.
